

mean along me - &
that wd be most highly appreciated -

If you are well Eno; pray come. We will gladly, if you will advise us, entertain
you the night before &
after. of that will save you fatigue &
make it more agreeable.

Your old friends the Abbys will be cheered

So, by the sight of you. They seem rather decrepit, now. I am sorry to say - In haste, but sincere and fond & all - some of whom I hope will come with you - Remain

Affectionately Yours

Joseph May

Newburyport

Oct 13, 1835

My dear Mr Garrison.

I do wish you could come to our Anniversary celebration, Oct 20.

Can you not? It wd
hathly in, immensely, & add great éclat to
it.

Then you wd help me
out at the Collation
with a speech - I don't